

INVITATION

A HISTORY OF THE FRENCH IN LONDON: LIBERTY, EQUALITY, OPPORTUNITY

Edited by Debra Kelly and Martyn Cornick, IHR Publications 2013

Join us for a book launch and discussions with the editors and contributors

Tuesday 2 July 2013, 5.30 – 8pm

The Cinema
University of Westminster
309 Regent Street
London W1B 2UW

The book launch and discussions start at 6pm, followed by a drinks reception to celebrate the book's publication.

There are an estimated 300-400,000 French citizens in the UK, mainly in London. Who are they? Why do they come to London? Where do they live and work? What kinds of contributions do the French make to the British capital? What are their histories?

Join us to meet and exchange views and experiences with the editors and contributors to the first history of the social, cultural, political and economic presence of the French in London from the 17th century to the present day.

The French Connection: this event takes place in The Cinema, the hall in which the Lumière Cinématographe premiered to the press on 20 February 1896 and the next day gave the first cinema show to a paying audience in Britain.
