We would like to correct five mistakes in our paper “Discovering Documentation for Java Container Classes” published in the August 2007 issue of this journal:

1 The caption for Fig. 4 (p. 529) says:

(a) NewObjectStack()state

instead of

(a) NewObjectStack().state.

2 The caption for Fig. 4 (p. 529) says

(e) push(NewObjectStack().state :

instead of

(e) push(NewObjectStack().state, Object@7).state :

3 Section 3.3.3 (p. 531) says

op(term<sub>1</sub>.state).retval, diff).retval = obs(term<sub>2</sub>).retval

instead of

op(obs(term<sub>1</sub>).retval, diff).retval = obs(term<sub>2</sub>).retval.

4 In Section 5 (p. 534, bottom of first column) term<sub>1</sub> says

push(ObjectStack().state, 4).state

instead of

push(ObjectStack().state, Object@4).state.

5 Equation (8) (p. 539) omits the opening parenthesis after addAll.

We apologize to the reader for any inconvenience these mistakes may have caused. We are indebted to Hewjin Christine Jiau, Dung-Feng Yu, and Kuo-Feng Ssu for pointing out these mistakes.
