This is the second book in the popular "Tasks Galore" series. Utilizing over 60 years of experience as teachers and therapists, the authors have developed a collection of tasks for older elementary to adult learners. This illustrated guide contains over 240 color photographs that depict domestic, independent functioning, vocational, and job site activities. These visually structured tasks are strategies that translate complex, everyday life skills into simpler, meaningful learning situations. The myriad of ideas in this guide will be valuable to anyone developing functional, daily living goals for a child or client. -Tasks Galore (www.tasksgalore.com)
