Compensation Service

Objectives

- Define Disability Compensation
- Define Service Connected Disability
- Explain the Life Cycle of a Claim
- Describe Compensation Benefits directly related to Disability Compensation
- Pension
- Veterans Service Organization

Disability Compensation

- Disability Compensation is a tax free monetary benefit paid for a service-connected disability
 - A service-connected disability is a disability resulting from injuries, illness, or disease that was incurred or aggravated while on active duty
 - Discharged under other than dishonorable conditions
 - Compensation is paid for disability ratings from 10% to 100%. Veterans can be rated at 0%, non-compensable
 - Veterans may be eligible for additional compensation if they are very seriously disabled; have qualified dependents; have a seriously disabled spouse

Disability Compensation (Con't)

- A service-connected disability can be established:
 - Directly
 - Due to aggravation of a pre-Service disability
 - Presumptively; and/or
 - Secondary to a Service-connected condition
- No-time limit to apply
 - Pre-Discharge – Programs designed for active duty
 - Post-Discharge
 - Paid retroactively to first of the month after separation/retirement if VA receives the application within one year of separation/retirement.
 - If after one year, generally effective no earlier than the date VA received the application.

Service Connected Terms

- Acute disability – short duration, clear without residuals
 - Common cold, Flu
- Chronic disability – long term duration, never goes away
 - Hypertension, Arthritis, Migraines
- In the Line of Duty – injury or disease incurred while serving on active duty

Service Connected Claims Process

- Original Claims (38 CFR 3.160)
 - Initial formal application on a form prescribed by VA Secretary. For Veterans, it is the VA Form 21-526
- Formal Claims: Letters, Memorandums, and other Communication from claimants or their representatives may be considered formal claims if they:
 - Request increased benefits
 - Reopen previously denied claims
 - Open a new claim
- Informal Claim: Any communication or action that shows an intent to apply for benefits

Life Cycle of a Claim

- Receive and review application
- Provide Veterans Claim Assistant Act (VCAA) Notice (Duty to Assist)
- Schedule a VA examination, if necessary
- Gather evidence
- Prepare a decision using all evidence of record
- Prepare the award of benefits or disallowance document
- Notify the Veteran
